

JARED MICHAEL KRUKAR

Jared is a Florida Bar Board Certified Specialist in Appellate Practice. His practice is centered on appeals and civil litigation support. He began his legal career with several years in the Florida Second District Court of Appeal—first as a Central Staff Attorney and later as a Senior Staff Attorney to the Honorable Darryl C. Casanueva. Jared left the court to practice with the appellate group of a national insurance defense firm. He ultimately joined DPW Legal in early 2017. He has more than ten years of appellate-focused experience.

Jared has successfully represented businesses and individuals in cases in the Federal Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals, the Supreme Court of Florida, all five of Florida's District Courts of Appeal, and several Florida Circuit Courts' appellate divisions. He has provided civil litigation assistance in both state and federal courts, including complex and dispositive motion practice and appellate trial support. Jared's extensive experience encompasses matters involving contractual disputes, intellectual property, premises liability, personal injury, wrongful death, foreclosure, property damage, insurance coverage, arson, and insurance bad faith, among others. Professionally, Jared is in leadership positions in the appellate practice sections of both local and state bar organizations, and he is a prolific author and speaker on various topics of appellate practice. He is also an adjunct professor at the University of Tampa, where he teaches Introduction to Law, Justice & Advocacy.

Jared obtained his undergraduate degree in International Economics from the University of Florida, and his Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration degrees from Stetson University. While at Stetson, Jared was also a Teaching Fellow, a Professor's Assistant in Research and Writing and Alternative Dispute Resolution, and a Research Assistant in Antitrust Law.
